

mt warning view circuit rainforest way

This drive takes you around the base of the Tweed Volcanic Caldera offering stunning views of the iconic Wollumbin-Mt Warning and the spectacular caldera escarpment.

From Murwillumbah follow Tourist Drive 32 to Mt Warning National Park for a rainforest boardwalk and then onto the historic village of Uki.

Leaving Uki towards Kyogle turn right into Byrill Creek Road and head towards Tyalgum (there is a 10km section that is unsealed) the entrance to Mebbin National Park is on the left.

Continue on the road to Tyalgum following the signs as you go and then on to Chillingham.

At the Chillingham bridge the option is to turn left to Natural Bridge (16km) and Nerang or turn right to return to Murwillumbah.

things to do along the way

- Take a break at the old cedar getting village of Tyalgum and have a chat with a local
- Buy fresh local produce grown in the fertile volcanic soils at a roadside fruit stall
- Pick up the Tweed Art Trail brochure and visit an artist along the way
- Wander through the Bushtucker garden at Chillingham
- Do the Byrill Creek walk to the stand of fig trees at Mebbin National Park
- Do the 1km walk at Natural Bridge Section of Springbrook National Park
